

Junior is constantly dealing with the differences between the existence of white people vs. the Indians on his reservation. These differences are mentioned both in the text and in the cartoons. As you read, watch for these moments of difference. As you find them, write a brief summary of the moment (quote or cartoon) and then analyze: how does this difference affect Junior?

Description of difference + page n°	Effect on Junior's life
